

Radicle Roots Series

Book Fundraiser

Four easy steps. Cash back with no stipulations.
The more books you sell, the more money you earn!
20% of all sales are returned to your school!

Our fundraiser:

- Encourages literacy and Stem education
- Develops environmental and design awareness
- Builds school, classroom, and home libraries
- Requires no door-to-door selling or complicated forms

4 SIMPLE STEPS

STEP 1

Send the Radicle Roots Series book order form home with your students. Remind them that books make great gifts for any occasion.

STEP 2

Collect all cash & checks (made out to your school), and order forms. Fill out the Fundraiser Book Order Tally Sheet to calculate your book order and mail the tally sheet along with one check for the total to Radicle Roots.

STEP 3

Once we receive your payment we will send you a conformation along with a receipt. We will mail your book order along with a check for the percentage your school has earned. Please allow 3-4 weeks shipping.

STEP 4

Match the order forms to the books and deliver to each child. If Courtney is doing a book signing at your school, books can be distributed then.

Award winning author and illustrator Courtney Rose McQueen will be visiting our school. Please use this form to pre-order books for the children and teens in your lives. 20% of all book sales will be returned to our school!

Courtney Rose McQueen is a landscape designer, artist, and children's book author from Columbia, Maryland. Her Radicle Root Series books and activities help translate the knowledge of our environment into fun, educational, and social design concepts for preschoolers and up. Her passion is to see kids get out and explore their environments. Visit her blog for free games and activity sheet about nature and the built environment at <http://www.radiclerootseries.com/>

Come Plant a Seed

(Picture book)

This whimsical story follows the conversation between two friends who just learn that wood comes from a tree. They are given a tree seed, and as they plant their seed they imagine what type of tree will grow.
